

Chad Tidd Bio

Updated: December 2019

Chad Tidd grew up just outside of Greenville, SC. He attended Clemson University and graduated in the year 2000 with a B.S. in Animal Science/Pre-Veterinary Medicine. While at Clemson, Chad met his wife Reagan! Chad and Reagan have been married for 19 years and are both very passionate Clemson Tiger fans.

Chad and Reagan have a daughter Greer (age 12) and a son Luke (age 10). The Tidd family moved to Mount Airy in the summer of 2012 to build and open Mt. Airy's long awaited Chick-fil-A restaurant. The Tidd's enjoy the outdoors, hiking and landscaping around their home. They love animals and currently have 9 chickens, 3 dogs, 3 cats and a fish on their small "hobby" farm.

After graduating college, Chad and Reagan served on Campus Ministry with Campus Crusade for Christy for several years. After a season of ministry, Chad and Reagan relocated to South Carolina where Chad began a sales career for a professional turf grass company. Chad experienced exponential growth in this career field, but he had always wanted to own his own business.

Chad decided to make a bold career move and take a huge risk to pursue an opportunity with Chick-fil-A. At the age of 32, Chad left his job and went to work as a team member at a Chick-fil-A in Clemson. Thankfully, things with Chick-fil-A progressed and Chad was selected as the Owner/Operator of Mount Airy FSU in March of 2012!

The Tidd's count it an honor and a blessing to partner with Chick-fil-A and to try and grow the brand here the Yadkin Valley and beyond. Chad's restaurant has experienced tremendous growth over the last 7 years, and he is so thankful to have found team members who are endeared to his vision to "Serve with a Grateful Spirit" and a community that has been so receptive and supportive!
